

Course title: Study and research work and preparation of Master's Thesis
Teacher/Teachers: all teachers included in the study program.
Course status: mandatory
Number of ECTS: 10 ECTS
Requirements: passed exams in all courses foreseen by the study program.
Aim of the course: Introduction to the rules and phases in the process of drafting of the final Master's Thesis in a practical and applicable way. It encompasses issues regarding choice of topic, setting of the hypotheses and research goals, problem defining, the manner of collection and use of literature, quotation rules, setting of the structure of the Thesis. After this course, it is expected that student is capable to write and defend final Master's Thesis.
Course outcome: Acceptance and application of knowledge regarding rules and standards in writing of the academic final Thesis and enabling students to independently make the research project and defend final Thesis.
Course content: Theoretical part: A view on methods which will be used during research relying on knowledge and skills acquired through lectures and exam in course Methodology and Practical Skills. Practical part: Choosing the topic and problem; work in library and instructions for use of electronic services to access online editions of journals; organization of the work on literature.
Literature: Literature foreseen for the course Methodology and Practical Skills.
Instruction methods: Scientific research work; consultations with chosen professor (supervisor).
Number of classes of active lectures:	Other classes: Study research work: 8 classes a week; 120 classes in semester	